

Federal Emergency Management Agency
Preliminary Floodplain Insurance Maps (FIRM)
Review Schedule and Appeal Determination Process
Revised November 24, 2014

November 12th, 2014

- GIS section to prepare exhibits that reflect existing conditions and proposed map revisions
 - Proposed Flood Maps Showing May 2010 Damaged Properties Map

December 1, 2014

- Staff meeting to review and discuss maps and potential for appeals. This meeting would include Eric Stuckey, Vernon Gerth, David Parker, and team members for the BNS and Engineering Departments.

December 9, 2014

- Floodplain Manager Shanna McCoy to make presentation to the BOMA on public engagement process.

December 1 -12, 2014

- Implement a webpage providing as much information to residents as possible to include:
 - Preliminary Maps
 - May 2010 flood property maps
 - Overview of FEMA's Process for adopting revised FIRMs and appeal process

January 5 - 16, 2015

- Public meeting to be advertised in the local paper and letters sent to affected priority owners.
- Signs/Public Meeting signs to be posted in residential and commercial flood areas.
- Public Meeting advertised on our Website

February 11, 2015

- Public Meeting / Open House
 - Overview of FEMA adoption and appeal process
 - Responses to FAQ
 - Presentation of Maps
 - Proposed Flood Maps
 - Existing Flood Maps
 - 2010 flood maps
 - Provide an opportunity for residents to request the City to appeal on their behalf

March 10th, 2015

- Presentation to the BOMA summarizing the public meeting and provide a recommendation on the merits and budget implications associated with filing a formal appeal.

Important:

- FEMA and their consultant, AECOM have offered to participate in the public meeting?
- The deadline for a private property owner or the City to file an appeal is 90 days following publication in the Tennessean. (FEMAs consultant is responsible for have this notice published)