3. No person under the age of 21 will be served alcoholic beverages.
4. Employees must ID anyone attempting to purchase an alcoholic beverage.
5. The sale or service of alcoholic beverages to intoxicated customers is prohibited.
6. Managers will visit any customer who has been served two (2) drinks within an hour prior to another drink being served so that the manager can evaluate the customer's level of intoxication.
7. All employees must report incidents to a manager and document them in an incident log within an hour of their occurrence.
8. Employees will offer to call a taxi, Uber, Lyft or other car service for any intoxicated customer at the customer's expense.
9. Employees will not physically restrain intoxicated customers to prevent them from leaving the establishment.
10. Employees will immediately notify a manager and will call the police to report any intoxicated customer who leaves the establishment and who gets behind the wheel of a motor vehicle.
11. It is against the law to serve alcohol to any person who is visibly intoxicated.

Employee Coaching Tips:

The primary legislative purpose of the Alcohol Server and Responsibility Act of 1995 is to prevent intoxication-related deaths, injuries, and other damages through responsible serving practices and awareness.

What does this mean for you?

- Knowing and following the laws which govern the industry in which you are employed is your responsibility. Claiming ignorance if a problem arises from your service or sale of alcohol is not a defense in the eyes of the law.
- Under Third Party Liability, servers can be held liable for a guest causing injury to themselves or others if it can be proven that the party involved was served alcohol illegally (minors or obviously intoxicated) or negligently (carelessly, irresponsibly, without level of care).

What can you do?

- Good ID checking practices: everyone should be carded, regardless of appearance, even if they have already been served by someone else or been sold to on previous occasion. You have the right to refuse service or ask for additional documentation if you are not satisfied with their identification.
- Condition & consistency - if the ID is difficult to read, and inconsistent with the Driver's License Guide Book, you can refuse to accept it.
- Ownership - does the ID belong to the person using it?
- DOB - make sure that you know what day someone must be born on to be served alcohol.
- Expiration Date - it is against the law to sell alcohol to someone with an expired ID, so always check the expiration date.
- Seals and Signatures - these will be consistent across every ID issued from that state.
- Are there signs or impairment or intoxication? Have they already been drinking? If so, you may refuse service. If the guest is displaying any signs of impaired judgement or coordination, it is likely that they are intoxicated and should be refused service.
- High risk situations - bachelor parties, fraternity & sorority groups, women, known alcoholics, young drinkers (21-25). Pay extra attention to these groups, as they are more likely to experience alcohol intoxication quickly.
- What is the mood of the guest? What is their condition and size?

Set the Pace

- Serve water with the first round of drinks and endeavor to keep them full.
- Provide a MAFIAoZA's Franklin menu.
- If a guest hesitates in ordering, offer non-alcoholic suggestions.
- Note the guest's reaction to drinks - are they too strong?
- Serve only one drink at a time.
- Never give away drinks.
- Never "keep'em coming."
- ALWAYS get a manager if you are concerned about a guest's intoxication.

Note: This training policy is part of the MAFIAoZA's Franklin Employee Handbook that each employee receives upon their employment.
