These General Terms and Conditions govern your use of the Thomson Reuters legal information products, software products which include on-premise software and hosted software, and professional services in the Thomson Reuters ordering document. "We", "our", "Thomson Reuters" and "Thomson Reuters Legal" means West Publishing Corporation and our affiliates; "you" and "your" means the Subscriber identified in the ordering document.

The ordering document identifies the Thomson Reuters products and professional services, the quantities, charges and other details of your order. The ordering document also refers to documents which may apply to the products or professional services you selected. The ordering document, any applicable referenced documents and these General Terms and Conditions constitute the complete agreement and supersede any prior discussions or representations regarding your order. If the terms of the ordering document are different from these General Terms and Conditions, the ordering document will have priority. Other terms and conditions you incorporate into a purchase order or similar document shall not apply.

1. License Terms. (a) We grant a non-exclusive, non-transferable, limited license to you to use the product in your ordering document in the regular course of your business. We maintain all rights of ownership to our products. Our products change from time to time. Access to certain data may be restricted. We are not providing legal advice by allowing you to use our products. Your interpretations of data are your own for which you have full responsibility.

(b) On-premise software product licenses include updates (bug fixes, patches, maintenance releases) but do not include upgrades (releases or versions that include new features or additional functionality). You may use our software product in object code only. You may make copies of our software product for backup and archival purposes. The copy must include an embedded copyright or proprietary rights notice. No other copying or reproduction is allowed. You may not modify, translate or create derivative works of our software products.

(c) You may quote and excerpt from our information products in your work with the appropriate cite and credit to the source. Except as provided in paragraph 1 (d), you may store data from our information products in a secure internal system in the regular course of your business. You may display our information product data internally. You may transmit our information product data electronically using a feature in the information product or print and share that information product data as necessary in the regular course of your business. Copyright notices must be retained on the transmitted or printed items. The Copyright Act (17 U.S.C.A. 107) fair use provision may allow additional uses.

(d) You may not sell, sublicense, distribute, display, store or transfer our products or any data in our products in bulk or in any way that could be used to replace or substitute for our products in whole or in part or as a component of any material offered for sale, license or distribution to third parties. You may not use any means to discern the source code of our products.

(f) You may not run or install any computer software or hardware on our products or network or introduce any spyware, malware, viruses, Trojan horses, backdoors or other software exploits.

(g) We are not a consumer reporting agency. You may use information product data to support your own processes and decisions but you may not deny any service or access to a service to a consumer based solely upon the information product data. Examples of types of service include eligibility for credit or insurance, employment decisions and any other purpose described in the Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C.A. 1681b).

You agree to immediately notify us if any of the information you provided in your ordering document or during the credentialing process changes. You agree and warrant that you are the end user of this data and that you will only use it for your own internal business purposes. You will not disclose it to anyone except as necessary to carry out your permissible use. You will immediately report any misuse, abuse or compromise of the data. You agree to cooperate with any resulting inquiry. If we reasonably believe that the data has been misused, abused or compromised, we may block access without additional notice. You are responsible for all damages caused by misuse, abuse or compromise of the data by you, your employees and any person or entity with whom you shared the data. The agreement will remain in effect through the 180-day extraction period.

(b) We will provide notice to you of any unauthorized third party access to your content of which we become aware in accordance with applicable law and will use reasonable efforts to remediate identified security vulnerabilities. If your content is lost or damaged, we will assist you in restoring the content to the hosted product from your last available back up copy.

(c) You are responsible for ensuring that your content does not infringe on any intellectual property right, violate any applicable laws or the terms of any agreement. You must promptly notify us in writing of the claim, supply information we reasonably request, and allow us to control the defense and settlement. We have no liability for claims that include items not provided by us.

10. Term, Termination. (a) The term and any renewal terms for the product are described in the ordering document.

If the cause of the suspension is reasonably capable of being remedied, we will provide you notice of what actions you must take to reinstate the product. If you fail to take the actions or the cause cannot be remedied within 30 days, we may terminate the agreement.

(c) You may terminate the agreement immediately upon written notice if we commit a material breach and fail to cure the material breach within 30 days.

(d) We may amend these General Terms and Conditions from time to time by giving you at least 30 days prior written notice. If an amendment materially changes the agreement, you may request good faith negotiations regarding those terms that materially change the agreement. If the parties cannot reach mutual agreement on the material changes within 30 days, you may terminate the agreement immediately on written notice.

(e) You may terminate the agreement immediately on written notice if you object to amendments made to the third party additional terms under paragraph 2 if the amendments materially change the agreement.

(f) Upon termination, all licenses end immediately. You will return software products to us or uninstall and destroy them. Termination of the agreement will not relieve you of your obligation to pay us any amounts you owe up to and including the date of termination.

(g) Either party may terminate the agreement in part as it relates to any software or other product or service that is licensed or ordered under the agreement if and to the extent that software or other product or service is no longer commercially available.

12. General. (a) You may not assign the agreement to anyone else without our prior written consent. We will provide you with written notice if we need to assign the agreement as part of our business operations.
